“ My Aunt Annie was a loving, smiling, beauty devoted to my Uncle Georgie as he was known to the family. My earliest memories of her are of them sitting on the sofa together at my Grandma's house. She was young and laughing. She played with me and we had tea parties. When she had Cheryl, her first baby, she still had me come over to play, even as Cheryl was a toddler and we could play together. Aunt Annie and I reminisced about this many times over the years. Once she bought me a ceramic set of animals that we painted together. I never forgot that set. It was fun and messy. Not an item I would be allowed to have at my house. When she and my Uncle moved to Ohio, cards notes and cut outs followed. As her own family grew it was always fun to receive their glittery, sticker covered hand made Christmas cards. She was always a fan of me, always comforting, always good medicine for a child's self esteem. She also gave love to my children and grandchildren and prayed for us. While I am sad for myself, her children and their families have lost an unending well of love. I send them my love and sympathy as only an immeasurable loss deserves.

“ What a wonderful woman! As a child, it was unusual to meet an adult who didn't scold you for something. Auntie Annie never scolded, was never cross, and was always a joy to be around. Later on in my life I could see how she kept track of everyone in her family. She reached out and let us know we were all important to her. She was so very special and she will be missed.

“ When Ann could no longer take care of her sweet dog, Lottie, I had called Otterbein after my pet passed away to see if anyone had a pet that needed a home. God was looking over us. I not only gained a dog but a best friend too. Ann and I had so much in common and we talked once or twice every day. Lottie was our dog and I made sure Ann Got to see her as often as possible. I only knew Ann for a little over a year but it was like I have known her all my life. She was a special, special person. I loved her so much.

“ It is too hard to put into words what George & Ann meant to us as a young couple owning a home for the first time and living in a somewhat "retirement" community. They were wonderful friends, neighbors, 2nd parents, adopted grandparents to our girls, and so much more. The fun we had living beside them and our Pizza Hut nights will never be forgotten. We were so blessed to have known them and the enrichment they placed in our lives is like no other. Ann's smile will be missed and her quick wit when having a visit (in person or on the phone). Our youngest daughter commented that she will miss Ann's random emails about life and how things were going. She is now home with the love of her life, George, and most likely doing a crossword puzzle.

Our deepest sympathy to everyone.
