“ My condolences go to your Daughter, my Best Friend, Chris Byer, your son, Dennis and Todd, Kalene, and Chadd. The first time I met you was when your daughter, Chris, brought me over to the house. You made me feel so welcome by giving me a hug and told me I was welcome anytime. I began going to family outings that included the lake, Minster Oktober Fest, and my FAVORITE memory of all, working in the Lions Club trailer. I can still remember you smiling while you were completely covered in cotton candy that was even in your hair. I know you were someone that I looked up to and that had a lot of wisdom that you shared with both Dennis and Chris. I have been blessed in knowing both you and your wife through your daughter who has always been my Best Friend. Rest In Peace to the both of you.

Melissa Turner

P.S. Thank you for always allowing me to park in your driveway during the home football games.

“ Where do I even begin? I think that sharing only one memory is too hard for me. Why? Because you gave me a lifetime of them. You and mom kept a promise when you really didn't have to. You took in two babies that weren't yours and raised them as though they were. You have always been, and always will be my daddy. You deserve that title, whether it is in written in that obituary or not. You taught me to always be respectful, honest, and hard working, but most of all, responsible for the things that I do. You and I shared so many good times together before mom passed, and even more time together after. When I visited you, we laughed a lot, listened to music, watched old tv series like The Rifleman, Mash, and Gunsmoke, and sometimes we just sat in silence watching things going on outside the living room window. Just being in your presence meant the world to me. Those times can never be erased. You were the best dad a girl could ever ask for, and you were an amazing grandpa to my children. My family will miss you and mom for the rest of our lives.

I love you daddy. Rest in Peace. Chris
