“ Tom, Karen, Mary Ellen, and Linda -
We are so sad to lose Betty. She and your dad were wonderful neighbors who will be missed by us all. Even when death comes after a long and well-lived life, it is still very difficult to lose one's mom. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. Deepest sympathy. Thinking of you...

“ I am so sorry to learn of your loss and am thinking of your family. No matter how elderly or sick a family member might be, you can never fully prepare for their passing so I know this must be a difficult time for you all. I wish that I had been able to know Betty in life. She sounds like a very wonderful person!

“ My deepest sympathy at the loss of your dear Mother. I'll always remember Aunt Betty's delicious noodles served at holiday dinners on the farm. She hosted many of the family gatherings over the years and for that I'm sincerely grateful. May she rest in peace.
