“ When I think of my childhood, I think of you. Thank you for being my sidekick, my fake cousin so our friends wouldn't tease us, my partner in crime every weekend and Summer. Monopoly tournaments, eating carp dough, saving me from snapping turtles, walking me to the outhouse in the dark, fishing on the rocks for hours. Walking the city of Vandalia in the sewers, endless games of pong, horror movies (and sleeping with knives to save us). Literally being my twin because our moms bought the same clothes sometimes, forcing me to understand Star Wars and making me constantly laugh. Thank you for all the memories and just being a such a big part of who I am. My condolences to all the people that loved Tony.
