“ To all families we send our condolences to the homecoming of a beautiful lady, To Jim in particular. 50 years ago your dad and mom opened their home to a 13/14 year old boy and made me feel right at home. They treated me with much love and care that even to this day (just 2 weeks ago) when I go to Wapak I drive by the house 2 blocks from Millers cleaning and think nothing but great things about my visit there. I want to share with you at this time I remember your mom today as sharing and caring for me and the mark she made in my life. I have just had ankle surgery and can not make the visit or I would share these things face to face. God right now is giving your mom her rewards she has earned here on this earth and one of them is her gift of sharing and caring and God as well as Dave West and many others are telling Mrs. Everhart thank you for being you.

“ Aunt Bea lived a wonderful long life. She was an inspiration for her determination and living life to the fullest. She will be missed by all of us who knew and loved her. She was a huge part of our "Gillette" family. I missed her at the reunion but know she is celebrating a homecoming and reunion now with those dear ones that went ahead of her. I will miss her Salmon patties, i always think of her when fixing or eating them. My thoughts and prayers are with all the family. Take comfort in knowing we will see them again! Love to Wilbur her beloved, Vergie (Gary), Jim (Ginny), Vicki(Gary) and all grandchildren(grand and great) and to her stepchildren and stepgrandchildren. May God Bless and comfort each of you! love you all Bobbie Carol Gillette Barnhart

“ To the family of Bea, my condolences. I grew up with the Everharts as they were neighbors of my Grandmother Watt. Bea always had a smile for me when I was a young kid and when I was older we would sit together in Grandma's house and have morning coffee. She was one of my favorite people.

“ Bea and I had many good talks. She recently called to see how my mother and I were doing. She was so thoughtful. We were so deeply saddened to hear of her passing but know she is resting in heavenly peace. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Wilbur and the family.
