“ Andy,
No matter what the circumstance, to lose your Momma is so, so difficult. I feel your pain. My sympathies to you and your family. Her picture is so sweet as I imagine she was too. What a beautiful smile. So sorry for your loss.

“ Andy, Mick, we are so sorry to hear of the passing of Aunt Betty. She was always so sweet and smiling whenever I was able to visit with her. Betty was also my babysitter for Kelli in 1962 when she lived by the railroad. You have our sincere sympathy as Uncle Bob and Aunt Betty were special. Memories are forever so cherish them always.

“ Andy:

You are in my thoughts. The loss of a Mother is difficult. One of the most difficult in my life anyway. But, memories live on forever. Share them when you can, remember them always, and keep her love in your heart! God bless you.
