“ I met Mrs. Billie in Newport Beach airport, she was traveling with her husband and their close friend on their yearly trip. I had a purse that caught her attention as she thought that her granddaughter would like it. Weeks later I'm mailing her the purse and we became friends. She wrote the most beautiful letters, and I loved loved hearing stories about the love of her life after she passed, her grand daughter and her nursing career. She was the sweetest woman. I'm grateful for our divine meeting and learning so much from her. Such a beautiful gem. May the God of peace, comfort, and love consume the hearts of everyone she loved and graced with her presence.

“ Sincere condolences from the Gene Pohlable Family. Gene worked with Billie in the dry cleaning department of Miller's Laundry in the early 1950's where Billie was earning money to pay for her nursing school.
