“ Looking so much like my own mother, you were always my favorite aunt. Your sense of humor and keen wit made spending time with you so fun. I remember the time you and uncle Jim came to my house in Davisburg and had dinner. I felt so special you taking the time to visit; I think that was in 2005 or 2006.

So many memories of my even younger years with. Coming to spend the night and learning many creative crafts from you.

Our last visit was special being able to see you again. Bryn and I were trying to schedule another visit. I will miss you so much. Rest peacefully. I love you so much. ❤️💔
