“ I am so sorry for your loss. He looks like he was very happy and loved. Such a precious child. No words can express how sorry I am. Our family is praying for yours during this trying time and we know God has plans for even this, though we don't understand. I pray you will find comfort and know others are holding you up in prayer. You have our deepest sympathy and prayers.

“ Brian & Julie - My name is Kelly Ernst. I am Karen Gillette's niece we feel connected to Caleb through this family relationship. Our family are all sharing in your loss of Caleb. We are praying for God to hold all of you firmly in his loving hands and to give you strength, comfort & most of all love during this difficult time. Caleb was fortunate to be one of Karen's kids. He was part of a very special extended child-care family. We also feel connected to Caleb through his grandma Schneider, who taught our daughter Title I reading at Cridersville Elementary. It is because of Mrs. Schnedier that our daughter is now a teacher and shares the love of reading with children each day. Therefore, it seems most appropriate that we will be sending books to Nationwide Children's hospital in memory of Caleb.

God Bless you Brian & Julie, your children & Mrs. Schneider, may it comfort you to know others care.

*With Deepest Sympathy,
Kelly, Tom & Kirstie Ernst - Cridersville, OH*
