“ One of my many memories of Uncle Charlie. He would walk into Grandma Beers house dressed in his famous bib overhauls and he always would say. “Well, what’s happening?” We were never sure of Grandmas response which could sometimes fire up Uncle Charlie. As a kid I loved it when the sparks would fly. He loved country cookin so When Jim & I were driving back to GA we would often meet in a Mexican restaurant which in my mind somehow just didn’t fit him. 🤔🤔🤔. But, my Uncle Charlie was definitely unique & definitely a one of a kind man. I loved my Uncle Charlie. May God give comfort to those left behind. Marlene & Jim Taylor
