

Charles A. "Spanky" DeVanna

September 8, 1966 - February 24, 2019

Charles A. "Spanky" DeVanna, 52, of Wapakoneta, died Sun. Feb. 24, 2019, at his residence in Wapakoneta. He was born Sept. 8, 1966, in Bellevue, OH, the son of James & Irene (Thompson) DeVanna, who preceded him in death.

Survivors include,

a brother, James DeVanna, Clyde, OH,

2 step-children, Cassie Whitmore, Wapakoneta,

Cory Daisy, Continental, OH.

Spanky worked with Ken Meyer Construction Co. He was a member of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles, Aerie #691, Wapakoneta.

There are no public services planned. Arrangements are being conducted by the Eley Funeral Home & Crematory, Wapakoneta.

Tribute Wall

SM

“ Sheri Mabry lit a candle in memory of Charles A. "Spanky" DeVanna

Sheri Mabry - March 02, 2019 at 08:11 AM

SL

“ I've Spanky for over 20 years so many memories. But my favorite is the day he walked into Brian's an my wedding in a tux an tails, I will never forget him doing that for us. Our hearts are heavy with losing him. I will miss seeing you Spanky in your spot at the alpha. You were a good friend .

Sally Longworth - March 01, 2019 at 12:40 PM

WA

You could always make me laugh and was a good listener loved our talks it been yrs since I've seen you I hope you fly high

wilma armer - March 02, 2019 at 03:31 AM