“ *Dear Kellie and Family, I know we don't know one another. I receive e-mail notifications from Bayliff & Eley when a family experiences a loss. I had to reach out to you to tell you how very sorry I am for your loss. I also want you to know that healing this kind of loss can be life-changing in truly miraculous ways. I lost a baby to stillbirth 25 years ago this coming October 10th, on my 4th wedding anniversary. Each and every year at this time, I have contemplated how to deal with such a powerful experience. Each and every year, doing so has brought me more healing in all areas of my life. It made me want to LIVE -- and appreciate every breath I take -- for my baby who never received one. It is my sincere hope that you receive these words as encouragement and sympathy and that you walk through this journey knowing you are being carried by Angels. I will continue to send you love and prayers. Keep taking lots of deep breaths and one step, one day at a time. You're going to be okay, I promise.
