“ Mrs Herron and Family - I was saddened to read of David's passing. You were neighbors to my dad and mom for some time and while visiting with my parents I had many pleasant conversations with David. Our business relationship was also cherished. May his many memories sustain you during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ At each Worship Service, where God’s Children gather, it is with Angels, and with Archangels, and with all the Company of Heaven that we laud and magnify the Lord’s glorious name. Among that “Company of Heaven,” live all our loved ones who have gone on before us. Therefore, it is true that at each Worship Service, we spend time beside those loved ones.

This is not true by any work of ours, but by the Very Word of God. This is the same Word that brought all of Creation into being; the same Word that brings Christ’s Body and Blood to us by the bread and wine; and the same Word that calls our loved ones to Heaven, where He keeps them, safe in His arms, awaiting the day we join them, for all eternity.

May you grieve your loss, with the thought of this blessed promise in your heart, until the Lord makes it so.
