“ God brought this wonderful lady into my life many years ago, she was one of the best friends you could ever want in your life. Her love for God drew you to her and God, her love of life, the word, music, dancing, her family and friends was amazing to see. Thank you Delana for every moment, every prayer, every encouraging word you shared with me, I have never forgotten and never will. Thank you for being there, the world was a better place with you in it, you will be missed
Love you always!
