“ Dewey was one of a kind, for sure! My two sons, Rafael and Bert, were neighbors with Barb and Dewey at different times throughout the last decade, and they both thought very highly of them both. I worked with Dewey at Walmart store also, and he always had a good word to say about everyone-they sure were the "sweetest thing you ever saw"-especially the ladies. Please rest in peace, Dewey. “ My husband works in the Wapak store, so we often saw Dewey. I was always happy to see him because he always had a smile, a greeting, a laugh, or a bit of humor to share. It didn't matter how bad the weather - hot or cold -or how tough the day, he was always the same - the constant encourager. I doubt there is anyone who ever visited the Wapak Walmart during his shift who would not remember him.

“ I don't have a memory of Dewey, but I do know that he touched many and was loved dearly by all... He was a wonderful role model to his children... I never met Don Cummings in person.. just friends on FB... and through his updates and fond memories of his dad... speaks volumes of what a wonderful soul his dad was. We should all take a lesson from this man who just wanted to make a difference in life by spreading joy to others. RIP Dewey and sending my prayers for the whole family during this sad time.

Dewey was a very special man. I always enjoyed visiting him at Walmart. I didn't get to their house often, but I sure visited him at Walmart. Now, the bench is empty, and you still look for him. I can see him in heaven with his fishing pole. God knew it was time for Dewey to have rest and no more pain. We will all miss you, friend. Sympathy to Barb and the kids. God bless “ Dewey was like the grandfather I lost years ago. He was always so wonderfully sweet and made my day every time I saw him in WalMart. He was one of the main reasons I even went there to shop. He will be greatly missed and my heart goes out to the family. He was a Wonderful man to all who had the privilege to know him. I wish I could have gotten my Dewey hug one more time.
