“ Oh Doloros, how can any of us let you go? You are woven through this family from birth to death, you educated us, comforted us. You stood at our milestones , our weddings,, our family funerals. You gave us courage when tragedy struck. So now you are with God that is what we believe. If somehow you could speak to us here, inform us that you have landed safe and sound. But there is a majestic reason you cannot speak to us today, because if you could we might no need faith and faith is what we're all about. We will never forget you Doloros. We believe that you have melted back into HIS glory, your soul is like a returned favor, you are a star in HIS sky and a warm feeling in our hearts. We believe that you are with your forefathers and with your past and are at peace. Where do we look for you now? Where you have been trying to get us to look all along we look UP!! Goodbye dear friend

“ We have such wonderful memories of being with Doloros and her family. We were so blessed to have been raised around an extended "Christian Family" in Wapakoneta. "Hey kid" was her loving address to all of us! She will surely be missed by all that knew and loved her. Lovely lady inside and out!
