“ On behalf of Blume High School Class of 1954, we send our heartfelt sympathy to all of Donna's family on your loss. We know you have many fond memories and we hope you will be able to dwell on those memories for your peace and comfort. Donna was on our class reunion decorating committee from our 50th class reunion on and even contributed decorations for our 65th reunion on September 7, 2019. She was a dedicated worker.
