“ Don remembers the evening he was traveling home from bowling Green and thought he could make it home safely but the snow became to much to manage and he called Aunt Donna to see if he could spend the night. It was very late but she graciously responded yes. The next morning sent him off with a breakfast. He returned her favor by shoveling out her driveway.

ME

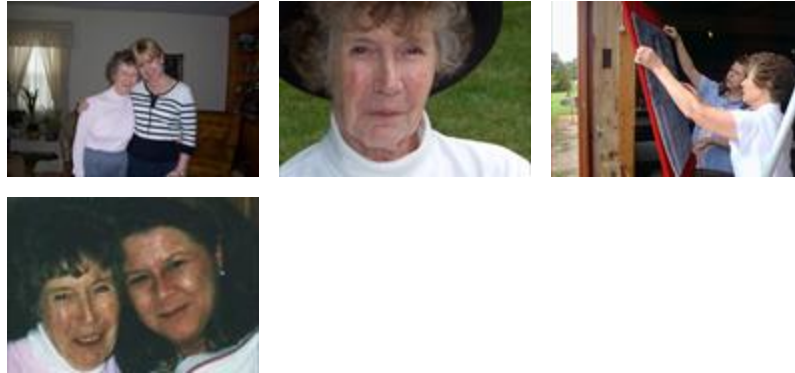

I remember Donna very dearly. We lived beside she and Paul for almost 30 years. Donna was always so sweet. She always took great care of her ceramic chickens by bringing them in every evening to keep them safe from any harm. One time the cupola blew off their beautiful brick shed, and my husband put it back up. Who knew it wasn't attached? She put up with our children growing up in the neighborhood with all their noisy friends. She was a wonderful person and we will miss her smile and grace.
