“ Bud, How priveleged I feel to have known Dorothy all these years. She was so beautiful both physically and her personality. That wonderful, warm smile and delight when she met someone she knew. I am sad for you that she has gone on to be with God but I rejoice because her name is written in heaven and someday we will see her again. God bless you my friend.

“ I did not know Dorothy personally but I know her granddaughter, Brenda O'Quinn. Brenda told me that Dorothy helped to raise her and was like a mother to her. That tells me that that Dorothy must have been a very special woman because her granddaughter is one of the nicest folks I know. My husband and I send our deepest sympathy to Brenda and her family. You are all in our hearts. We pray that you remember all the happiness Dorothy gave you throughout her long life on earth and seek solace in your rememberances. Sincerely, Carol and Robert Anker
