Mae was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother with a beautiful soul. She loved all her family dearly and enjoyed spending time with them over the years. Mae was an amazing cook that could feed an army. She enjoyed playing cards, board games, puzzles, Yahtzee, and many others with her family. Mae had an extraordinarily green thumb and loved tending to her flower beds. She enjoyed all types of birds, especially the red cardinal. Although our hearts mourn the loss, we take comfort in knowing she is with her Lord and Savior.
