“ Dear family and friends of Edith M. Stroh, My name is Cheyenne and I am in a volunteer Christian work encouraging ones to look into the Bible. I'm so sorry for your loss. It is always a sad occasion when someone we love dies. Jesus Christ did give us a hope for dead loved ones, however. He talked about a resurrection of the dead in a Paradise Earth where all of us will see our loved ones again! In John 5:28, 29 he promised “All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” The Bible also tells what kind of people will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15) Also, I wanted to share with you a wonderful Scripture that tells of what will happen in God's Kingdom. Notice what it says at Revelation 21:4 “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Isn't that a very comforting promise? I hope this helps you like it has helped me. My heart and prayers go out to you. Below is a link to a very heartening Bible based brochure which you might enjoy in the months ahead. I encourage you to use your personal Bible with this brochure. <http://tinyurl.com/n8eglb>
