“ When we were playing Basketball for Saint Joe, Ed had the idea of going to Zofkie's Clothing and having them make jackets for we who played Basketball. The jackets cost about $25. I still have mine .

“ Ed was the epitomy of a GOOD GUY and a fellow I enjoyed being around. Since the 45th reunion he has been in my thoughts and prayers. Our sincere condolences thoughts and prayers go to the family. We are in texas or would surely be there. Ed goes home to the Father who probably has a job lined up for him.
