“ Sending sincere sympathy to Bill and his family on the loss of this sweet woman. It was such an honor to be her friend. She was a first class, dignified lady, under all circumstances. She was such a good listener & gave the best advice. We became friends while working at DeHavens and stayed in touch thru annual Christmas and birthday cards. I'm going to miss her & getting that beautiful hand written card in the mail...always included Bill's signature as well. They were such a sweet couple. Bill, you'll be in my prayers. When I read her obituary in yesterday's paper it brought back so many memories. She was so proud of you and each member of your family as it grew. Rest in peace, Eileen. You will be forever loved and remembered by those who knew you. Much love, Teresa Rampe
