“ To John and Family, so sorry to hear about Elsie. She was a very lovely person and I have so many good memories of her. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I did not know you had moved back to Ohio until I read her obituary. I don't know if you knew but Richard died Januay 27th this year so I know what you are feeling.

“ Elsie was a dear friend and will be greatly missed not only by you, John and children, but by everyone she ever met. She was a dear soul who obviously sought to carry out the Lord's work. She and John were certainly "family" to us.
