“ Bud, I am so sorry to hear about your dad. You know, I thought so much of him, he was always a pleasure to see in the morning when him and the group would come in for coffee. I'm thinking of you and Tracy, and sending my deepest condolences. Terry.

“ Emmet was a dear friend of mine. I would run into him and Dorothy at the grocery and they were always so friendly and talkative. He was a tax client of mine for many years. Surely he is now graduated to heaven and with God. It was my distinct honor to know him.
