He was born July 30 in Lakeview Ohio to the late Merle and Mary Linker, Mr. Linker was just a farmer having been born and raised on a farm the only son of Merle and Mary. He milked cows, raised chickens and pigs, Everett farmed the land, planting and harvesting crops of corn, soy beans and wheat. He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church in Jackson Center, OH and attended St. Paul United Church of Christ in Wapakoneta. Everett was a State of Ohio winner of the Future Farmers of America.

“ I remember seeing Everett at Grace Lutheran Church every Sunday when I was growing up in Jackson Center. I just want to say thank you for the good life of this good man. It is hard to see someone we all looked up to pass away and leave our world a little more lonely. My best wishes to Faero, Janet and to all your family.
