“ He had a heart as big as the sky and his love for his family was never-ending. He was generous to a fault and never held a grudge or had a bad word to say about anyone. With all he had been through I never heard him complain. The best tribute any of us can give him would be to emulate him. You may not be with us physically but you shall forever remain in our hearts. Love you, little brother...we'll try to carry on and follow your examples. Hold us a place in heaven. ,for surely we shall meet again.

“ Glenn, Not every brother turns out to be as understanding and loving as you were. When I think of our shared lives as brother and sister the ups and downs that we have survived together, the laughter and the tears. I realize how very lucky I am to have had a brother like you. I will miss you, but you will always be in my heart and mind, with every morning that the sun shines or that the rain falls, with each evening that the fireflies are in flight or in the dark of night. Thanks my brother for being you. I love you

“ God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be; So He closed His arms around you And whispered, "Come to Me." You didn't deserve what you went through, and so He gave you rest, God's Garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. And when I saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain, I could not wish you back to suffer that again. You will be missed Glenn. We love you
