“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Harold was a fine ole bird. :) He thoroughly appreciated when Bernie did things around the house.

“ Lois, Kay, Marie, Dorothy, Evie, Carrie, and Bobby, I have many memories growing up knowing Harold. As I told Marie last night, the most recent memory for me was dancing with Harold at her granddaughter Amanda's wedding reception and I think he was with us at Hussey's a few years ago when John and Marie took me along to dinner with the Engel crew. I know these last few years have been rough for him and like all of us who hate to lose our loved ones, we know there is "hope" in the promise of our Lord. Peace, forgiveness, eternal life. I will miss hearing the latest news on Harold but am thanking God for his presence on this earth and the assurance that he is not longer suffering. With love, Ann Bennett Presque Isle Michigan
