“ My heart goes out to you. I am so sorry for your loss. Janie was such a good, caring, helpful, encouraging, smart, loving friend. She took me to my first Ohio State Buckeye game at "The Shoe", taught me about the "Skull Session" and the total awesomeness of attending an Ohio State Buckeye game!! She invited me to go to Maine to her sisters house. What an awesome trip!!! Marilyn and John were such gracious hosts, so fun... playing their guitars and singing!! I saw my first up close moose, I learned to kayak and tasted my first "Ben and Jerry's !". I learned about the Five Rites of Rejuvenation as Marilyn would go to the dock to greet the day at sunrise. It taught me to take time for yourself and soul to start each morning is important-not only with exercise but starting that day with guidance from our Father. I felt that Janie was a soul sister - or kindred spirit. To look at her face brings back many happy memories. Jane Elliot was a wonderful person. It's time to celebrate a life well lived. Rest in peace my friend....until I see you again.
