“ Dear Janet and family, I was very sorry to hear about your loss of your brother. He was one of the most talented kids in band at Blume High School. He could play multiple instruments , was multi - talented in so many ways. He also had this amazing quirky sense of humor. He used to hide his oil bottles for his sax in the barrel of his horn and Bigelow would yell at him every time. Truthfully,I think they both enjoyed the challenge. He used to play around the area with various bands. Haven't seen him for a long while but I always admired all his talents. Condolences to your family. Marilyn wills
