“ I could always count on your phone calls checking on me and the kids which always ended "Love ya, see ya, byee". It's comforting to know you are in heaven now laughing with Luther remembering all the stunts you pulled growing up. You will be forever in my heart.

“O my, where do I begin? Riding on the back fender of your bicycle and getting my foot caught in the spokes? (I was 3? 4?) You buying me a giant troll doll when you came home on leave from the Navy the first time? Or the time you and the boys gave me a HUGE frog birthday card? I will miss you forever. I will love you forever.
