“ Grandma Shorty was a special lady! She was very opinionated and truthful to a fault. You always knew where you stood with her whether you liked it or not.

She loved her family and we loved her! We loved her jokes and the jokes we played on her. Because of her "many" opinions, especially in phone conversations, we would joke and pass her to the closest person sitting next to us. Of course with the saying, " Shorty, ----- wants to talk to you!" She would respond, "Say now!", a common phrase from her; and believe me... she knew what we were doing!

To a woman who has been thru it all, and done it all... love you and will miss your witty way! I hope you are having a reunion much deserved!

“ I met "Shorty" at Cleats several years ago with her devoted granddaughter Kris. It was so fun to see such a great relationship between the two...both characters! I know she will always be watching her family and maybe playfully intervening. Thinking of Kris and Erika today and how much she will be missed by them. Sending warm thoughts to you all.

“ I spent at least a week every summer in Wapakoneta with Auntie Jo, Uncle Paul, Nick and Susie. So many wonderful memories....fun times, lots of games, going to the pool, and hanging out with those "Hickman boys" to name a few. Auntie Jo was the life of every party...never a dull moment in that household! She was one funny Lady! I only remember one time that she was a "little" upset with Susie & I. We went to visit her Dad and being a kid myself I just remember him beingwell really "old!" He had I believe some type of cement dog as a door stop and he kept telling us that the dog was "moving." Auntie Jo said" NO " Dad he isn't... but Susie & I told him that "yes" we did see him move! We caught a little heck when she got us in the car!!!! She will be missed but she wouldn't want us to grieve too long! We'll keep her spirit alive with all the beautiful memories that she left us! Hugs & Kisses ~Nancy~
