“ Hi.

I grew up down the road from Jon in Buckland, OH.

He was my best friend during that time in my life.

We played T ball together. Rode the bus together (for hours). I spent alot of time at his/their house outside Buckland. I spent a night in his dads semi listening to "I guess thats why they call it the blues" because of a mechanical issue with the machine. I still think of that night when I hear that song.

Things change through life.....unfortunately lost touch.

Recently...reminiscing... feeding the baby chicks, I remember fishing the river, their scary basement, a sleepover watching scary movie...I remember his sister,...I remember his mom...working long hard hours waitressing at the time...always made sure us kids had enough to eat and were comfortable during visits. I don't think I ever thanked her enough.

I remember his dad being very gentle soul and willing to do whatever it took to make sure his family was comfortable and safe....

I remember biting into an apple on their farm and finding a worm....and still have vivid memories of that for some reason (at least it wasn't half a worm).

Thanks for the memories Jon and Mckee family.

Say "hi" to Mr. Tebee for me. I hope he's not still irritated with me/us for all the grief we likely caused him on the schoolbus.

Oh John Paul how kind. Such fond memories of you as well. We cried and laughed reading this. Thank you for the beautiful flowers and the tree is something he would love. It was just a terrible accident that took him from us. The memories soften the pain. He spoke of you many times. ❤️

“ I wanted to express my condolences to the McKee family during this difficult time. I also wanted to share what some teammates at the Franklin County Engineer's Office have shared about Jon over the last year.

"Jon is a very adaptable and positive teammate who stays optimistic no matter what obstacle or challenge comes up"

"Jon is a very dependable crew member"

"Jon is a great equipment operator"

"Jon has a strong work ethic"

"Jon treats other teammates the way he would like to be treated. He is professional and pleasant with everyone he comes into contact with"

I would also like to recognize Jon's previous military service to protect our freedom. Once again sorry for your loss.
