Vic had a wife and 5 other children, Jennifer, Gail, Paul, Helen and Sharon. He married my Mum in 1952, my Mum is now 90, all of his first 5 children are doing well. Never heard from him after October 1957. You mentioned he was a good man, that triggered me to address this.

“ Thinking of Joy and the whole Peachey family with many fond memories of growing up on Bellefontaine/Wentz Streets. Many summer nights of adult fun with Reds games on the radio and rum and cokes in their glasses while keeping the kids quieted with a snipe hunt (or whatever to keep us out of the adults hair). Also thinking of Joy in being our band counselor. Plus she and my mother coming home from shopping experiences under the French sounding aliases of Joy Peche (imagine that being French sounding) and my mom Joan Orchar. Joy had a very happy disposition that always made me smile, including now. May she rest in peace ~ Loving thoughts, Bobbie Orchard and Ray Dunlap

Thinking of you all during this difficult time. Bobbie is right, so many fond childhood memories of the Peachey/Orchard clans. Everytime I hear a Neil Diamond song I think of Joy. Deepest sympathy, Lori Powell and Steve Massey
