“ I taught the PACE class at the YMCA after Vickie Schaub retired and had Joyce in my class. She was always so pleasant and had a smile on her face. I am so very sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families.

“ My husband, Larry, and I were privileged to be among the few family friends invited to Steve and Margaret's 50th anniversary party. Steve and Margie are not just our next-door neighbors. They are our wonderful daughter-in-love, Erika's parents.

The room was full of family members, and everyone was having a good time. It was lovely to see people sitting and talking to Joyce. No one was going to leave Joyce out of any of it. You could feel how much Joyce was loved.

Larry and I always liked Joyce and Charles. They often came to birthday parties and other special occasions. So, when there was a chance to sit at Joyce's table, I took the opportunity to sit with her. After a bit of small talk, we just sat there and watched. Lots of talk and laughter. Cousins playing together, older children including the little ones in their fun.

That's the way it should be, of course. However, it isn't often Larry and I have experienced this kind of family feeling. Maybe it is one of the joys of a large family.

After a little while, I said to Joyce, "All these good people in this room are your children." Joyce took a long look around the room, smiled, and said with pride, "Yes, they are."

I loved it! Loved it! That is the way I want to remember her. She was the mother of a good and great family.

Larry and I will donate to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood and will ask for Masses at St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church in Van Wert.
