“ If I could but look for tomorrow Through teardrops that fall like rain I would know that God's love would sustain me Through this day of sorrow and pain. I would have found just an inkling Of what faith is really all about For faith is God's gift to His people That removes misunderstanding and doubt. If I could but look for tomorrow And see it just over the hill I would know this day of discontentment Is somehow God's holy will. Then I could look for the sunshine That somehow always follows the rain I would know in my heart that God loves me And that joy seems to follow the pain. You are forever in my thoughts and prayers. Love Aunt Rose

“ Holly, Miss Brianne, and Family, My deepest sympathy to you and your family with the loss of your Mom, your angel, your hero. The bond that the two of you shared was amazing, and I know that bond lives on between you and Miss Brianne and the new little girl God has blessed you with. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, at this most difficult time. I pray that you find the strength from your mom, to help you through the next few days, cherish the memories that will come to you and guide you through the next few weeks, and allow your new bundle of joy to fill your life in a oh so special way. With sympathy and love, Kimberly Frazier and Family.

“ Holly, you are in our prayers and thoughts. May God give you the strength to get through this and wrap his loving arms around you and keep you, Brianna and your daughter on the way, safe and comforted. I am always here for you. Your mom is one of the best women I have ever known. She is very loved. Please reach out to those who want to help you. You are never alone. We are blessed that God now has an angel, in your mom, to watch over us. We love you and are so very sorry. Love, Tiffany, Aaron, Jeramiah, Claire, Noah and Elijah
