“ Mr. and Mrs. Hiestand, I am so sorry for you loss. I use to babysit for both of your boys; I live right down the road. When I heard the news, I was in shock. When I watched Cole and his brother, I only remember wonderful things about him. Cole was always so willing to help me around the house and never complained once. I will never forget the time we went for a walk around the yard near the woods and he protected me from ebbing the wild berries. He told me I could not eat them because they would make me sick. Even then he was looking out for everyone he knew. He was such a joy to babysit and I can not tell you how grateful I am to have had the chance to be apart of his life. He was an amazing kid; thank you for sharing him with me. If you ever need anything, I am still right around the corner on 197. With all my love, Brea Quellhorst
