“ Dear Patricia and Family, You have my sincere sympathy on the death of your dear husband and father. Larry was in my confirmation instruction classes and we were in the first eight grades together in Wapakoneta. I was always glad to see his happy face in the several times we met after I moved to Henry County, Ohio. Again, I am sorry for your loss.

“ Pat, Lora, Mike, and Grandma Tyndall, I was so sad to hear about Larry. But I had to smile when I thought about everything I learned from him. He taught me how to keep the yard looking nice, the oil fresh in the car, the hamburgers cooked perfectly, and most importantly of all....how to be a Christian father and husband. I pray that God helps you through this dark time, and continues to bless your family. Romans 8:38
