“ Our hearts are heavy as we remember Leo. He was the very best neighbor ever, always willing to lend a hand. He was super talented in many ways especially when it came to fixing things. If something turned into an issue he would always say "We'll make it work"

May Jesus comfort Julie, Joe and Jason and their families in the days ahead as they hold on to all of those wonderful memories they shared throughout the years.

Gone too soon - he will remain in our hearts and minds forever.

I feel blessed to have had the chance to know Leo and Julie. They are a great couple and a pleasure to be around. A year ago Leo ask me to go on a motorcycle ride with him on July 4th. I had a hundred reasons for not going but I decided to go. Little did I know that, that ride would changed my life. It was 12 hours of fun and excitement with memories I will never forget...thanks for asking me to go Leo! Love, Joe and Nan
