“ I loved Linda dearly, she was such a wonderful lady.
I was devastated when she called me and told me how sick she was. She was such an inspiration to so many people and her love for God was immeasurable. I know she's with the Lord now and happy as she can be with Jesus in heaven.

“ Linda what a sweet lady. A woman of prayer, a prayer Warrior. She loved all her family and siblings and talked of them often. I'm thankful for her friendship and the amazing neighbors she and her family were when we lived across the drive. I'm grateful for the short season of life we got to share, that her pain is over and now she awaits our Lords return.
