“ Dear Shaffer Family, This beautiful woman touched a lot of lives, I'm sure. I worked with Lucy at the Wapak Manor a "few" years ago. She taught me so much and I'm sure she didn't even realize it. She was the co-worker who helped me through the final process of caring for a resident who had passed away. I was only 19 years old and clearly in shock because of the reality of the task. She kept it light-hearted, respectful, and her sincere caring really moved me. This memory and an overall sense of deep kindness I always felt from her is how I will always remember Lucille Shaffer. Thank you for sharing her with us. Lots of love to you and your family through this loss. May the love and prayers from friends comfort you and let you know how much we care. Sincerely, Melanie
