Prayers and sympathy to the family. Cookie enjoyed coming and helping when Trinity(his church family) was serving at Loaves N Fishes. He also loved to ring the church bell when ever he felt good enough to attend. RIP Cookie, you will be missed. Lawrence and Karen Dietz

“ Also one of the last times he was at my house I told him he was starting to look shaggy and that he needed a hair cut he said well what are you doing get to it so I cut his hair and even trimmed the hair on his face. Haha. Even though he tried to say I made him bald in the back and on the sides, he loved it.

“ Cookie always had everyone he was around laughing somehow. Me, my gf, and both my children had been hanging around him alot these past 3-4 months. He swore up and down I named my daughter after him because I named her brylynn. I'm still in shock about all this. My prayers go out to his family for your loss of a very special and caring individual.
