“*Robbie,
I am so sorry to see that your Mom has passed. I haven't seen her, or you, since I was a little kid and you all lived in the house next door to Grandma and Grandpa Brown. I remember her as always being a lot of fun. Always had a smile and a quick laugh at whatever us kids were up to. She was so kind and loving - always made you feel welcome and special. I pray that the peace of Christ will surround you and your family as you mourn and celebrate the wonderful person your Mother was.*

“*Knowing Jane was a great joy. She was full of wit and always smiling. She was such a great friend to my mom. They enjoyed their lunch time at Bob Evans and the Pullman or just driving around the lake. We are blessed to have her as a part of our lives and will miss her greatly.
