

Margaret A. McCullough

April 22, 1923 - November 28, 2009

Margaret A. McCullough, 86, of Wapakoneta, died 5:25 p.m., Sat. Nov. 28, 2009, at Auglaize Acres. She was born April 22, 1923, in Summitville, OH, the daughter of Ralph and Mary (DeAngelo) Carlone, who preceded her in death. On Oct. 7, 1944, she married Bernard McCullough, and he survives. Other survivors include, a daughter & son-in-law, Carol & Chuck Maurer, Seattle, WA, a grandson, Christopher Maurer, Seattle, WA, 2 brothers, Curly Carlone & Tony Carlone, both of Canton, OH, 3 sisters, Helen Kirkbride, Mary Watson, & Dolly Stephanic, all of Canton, OH, brother-in-law & sister-in-law, Bill & Joannie McCullough, FL, numerous nieces & nephews. She was preceded in death by a brother, Joe Carlone, Milwaukee, WI, and 2 sisters, Angie Petrullo, New Jersey, and Anne Deem, Canton, OH. Margaret served in the U.S. Navy during W.W. II as a dental hygienist and later worked with the City of Wapakoneta as a billing clerk. She was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Wapakoneta. She was a member of the Alvin W. Metzger V.F.W. Post #8445, Wapakoneta, where she served as Auxiliary president. She was also a member of the American Legion Post #330, Wapakoneta. She will always be remembered for her kindness, and caring and generous support of family and friends. A memorial service will held at a later date. There is to be no local visitation. Memorial contributions may be directed to Auglaize Acres. Arrangements are being conducted by the Bayliff and Eley Funeral Home, Wapakoneta.