“ I first met Marian when she lived at Otterbein cridersville. She was always so full of energy, always wore a cheerful smile, and didn't know a stranger. One couldn't help but enjoy the company of Marian. I was happy to reacquaint with Marian after she married Roger. She never lost her sweet, soft, gentle appearance or kind words for whomever she encountered. She and Roger made such a lovely couple. Their bond is one we can all strive for. My condolences to Roger and the family. Donna Sheipline
