We hold the wonderful memories of the many years of family reunions and holiday get togethers in our hearts. May God Bless you and bring you peace in this time of sorrow. We had planned to attend the funeral - but unfortunately the winter weather warnings just won't allow us to make the drive. Please know that you are in our thoughts & prayers & we would be there, if we could. We love & miss you!

May the memories of the beautiful and special moments that we all were able to share with her give you strength at this time of deep loss. Spending Holidays as kids growing up together and through our lives, the reunions and weddings and sharing the wonder of family is a special tribute to her life and our lives are all so much richer because of the Blessing of having had her in our lives. “ I was so happy to chat with you the other day & to catch up on what was happening with Marilyn & you. It was my joy to share with you that Marilyn was my nurse when I was in the hospital having one of my children. She was the "best". And to know that she was married to you & she was proud that she was. It was a few years ago (38 or 40) but I still recall our chats we had as she cared for them. My prayers of support & care are with you & your family during this difficult time.
