“ Marge was a wonderful lady who shared the dining room table with my dad. She was always so cheerful and fun to be around. She liked to joke and seemed to enjoy my teasing her. Everyone enjoyed watching her learn how to use her motorized wheelchair and she was good spirited with the teasing about the mishaps she had with it. God and her will have a great time in heaven. God bless her and she will be greatly missed.

Denise, Dan & Fred I am sorry for Aunt Margie's death. But what a great family she came from. I remember some of the stories that mom & Aunt Margie shared while they were living and growing up on the farm. They did some ornery things. I till this day remember mom looking forward to her calls on Sunday evening. All those "BURNS" sisters and bothers had a great love for each other. I am truly blessed to be part of the "Burns" family, great aunt and uncles and cousins.
