“Marlene was a wonderful neighbor to us, and has been since I moved in across the street from her in 1978. We had our daily talks at the mailbox, and watched out for each other. We also house sat for one another for the last 34 years. Marlene was a strong woman, and I admired her for that. I loved watching her outside w/ her flowers and yard, and she kept such a beautiful home. Marlene had a contagious laugh, and I would often try to make her laugh, just so I could hear it. She was an inspiration to many of us, with her gentle spirit and her caring personality. I will miss you, dear lady. I mean that from the bottom of my heart. Heaven is a little richer, with you in its prescence... Love always, Janet and Billy, and all the Drexler children: Brandon & family, Brad & family, Brooke (Stubbs)& family, and Brock
