“ Dear Hengstler family: My deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother, grandmother, and best friend. And THAT she was to alot of people! I loved her infectious smile and devilish attitude. I will always cherish the (winter sunset) painting she did for me. It hangs in my den all the time and when it is really warm here, I look at all the snow in the painting.....and it cools me down right away!! Never forget all the wonderful memories of Martha, and take care of one another. Love, Deb Darling

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. We have fond memory of Martha. I only wish we had the chance to have a wheelchair/walker race (as she mentioned to Allison on several occasions). Warmest regards
