“ I think my fondest memory of Marv was when he told his kids that despite having suffered a heart attack, there was no heart damage, because he didn't want to worry them. I nearly wrecked the car when Tony shared that with me. Marv and Louise were two of the most loving, giving people that I have had the pleasure of knowing. Heaven is an even better place with both of them there now.

My sincere condolences to Tony and his siblings on their loss.
